

Federal capabilities overview

Technology. Workforce transformation. Food & supply chain.

OCTOBER 2026

Springfield, Virginia | Established 2016

UEI: WDCVJGELGBB5 CAGE: 7WU37

320 federal prime actions | Approximately $123.5M in award value

Since January 2018. Company-supplied federal award summary, October 2026. Prime actions may include multiple actions under a contract.

Technology services

Cybersecurity assessments, governance, incident response, digital forensics and access management. Cloud readiness, migration and security automation. Enterprise architecture, integration and data analytics.

Workforce transformation

Technology adoption, organizational digital experience, workforce transformation and cybersecurity awareness training.

Food & supply chain

Food procurement aligned with USDA AMS specifications, supplier coordination, sourcing and delivery planning. Federal food assistance, food-bank and international food-aid support.

Published program experience

De Lune names the Farmers to Families Food Box Program and The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) in its federal food-supply overview. These are historical/company-published program references; request opportunity-specific past-performance documentation.

Government & teaming

Gaddafi Ismail | Founder & President
zgismail@delunecorp.com
+1 (703) 495-2700 (office)

Food supply & operations

Operations team
operations@delunecorp.com
+1 (703) 495-2700 (office)